Dear Governor,

I dont know if youve noticed, but those T.V. Talk Shows that are on T.V. all day long are very trashy. They tend to glorify people who lead very immoral lives. Our kids see these people and they think that this is normal, acceptable behavior when it is not. Im sick and tired of these talk shows putting the most outrageous people who lead sorted lifestyles and making them seem like there stars for doing so. These shows are rotting the moral values of the millions of impressionable kids who watch them. I know that the government was responsible fo taming the Jerry Springer Show by putting an end to all the fights that went on on that show but I think there is much more work to be done in cleaning up the content of these shows. Please consider what I have said. Our kids are counting on you.
